Pension Committee

This committee advises Council on all matters related to pension.

The role of the UTFA Pension Committee:

UTFA holds a permanent seat on the University Pension Plan's (UPP) Employee Sponsor Committee (ESC) and maintains a permanent right to appoint a trustee on the Board of Trustees.

UTFA's ongoing governance role shall be supported by an UTFA Pension Committee whose role includes:

1. Normally meeting at least three times per year.
2. Consulting with and advising the ESC representative and UTFA Council on any changes to benefits levels or contribution rates, and on any other UPP business, as appropriate, including the development of documents related to the UPP.
3. Implementing the UTFA-Council approved appointment processes (i.e., the recommendation, evaluation, and removal of current and future members of both the ESC and the Board of Trustees).
4. Consulting with and advising the VP, SBPW on any other pension matter, including any matter related to the Supplementary Account Plan.
