2015 Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting is UTFA's key decision-making gathering. Constitutional revisions, and many other important matters are dealt with at the AGM.

This year we are honoured to have David Miller as our guest speaker. Mr. Miller's talk is entitled "Town and Gown: is U of T of Toronto, or just in it?" and will respond to President Gertler's vision of the U of T "leveraging our location" as a great University in a great city-region.

As former mayor of Toronto, and as the president of WWF – Canada, Mr. Miller brings a unique perspective to urban and environmental affairs. You won't want to miss this important occasion.

All UTFA members are eligible and encouraged to attend. The AGM Newsletter includes the agenda for the meeting, financial statements, and reports from UTFA officers and committee chairs. Details on proposed changes to the Constitution and By-laws are also available for review.

To RSVP for the AGM, write to faculty@utfa.org.
